Stop trying to work it out, I say
You're trying to solve impossibilities

Instead of doubt
God is waiting
To help you out

To infinity
Stop counting, stop counting
To infinity

There's a thing called faith
That'll change your world
There's a thing called faith
That'll change your world

There's a thing called faith
That'll change your world
There's a thing called faith
That'll change your world

To infinity
Start trusting, start trusting
In Divinity

You'll waste your life, and you won't see
There's an answer in Divinity

Why not trust Him
Instead of doubt

You've got eternity in your heart
But you don't understand the mind of God
There's a little thing called faith that's dynamite
It changes everything

God makes it work
Ignore your doubts and Listen to the God of infinity
