

He Said He'd Pay

Verse 1 (The Decision)

God decided, before the world began
To join His own creation and die a tortured man
A blueprint of the future, His redemption plan
The price "The Fall" demanded, the slaughter of The Lamb

Pre-Chorus (The Human Race begins)

And as God formed the man in paradise
Before He breathed in him, the breath of life
The lifeless body laid, Angels marvelled, surveyed
A monumental holy spark, Lit man's soul from the dark
Mankind began

Chorus (The Reason)

Almighty God so loved the man
And all the souls of humanity that came after him
In the eyes of the world a mystery
But not in the council of divinity
God spoke the word, He said He'd pay
Because of love

Verse 2 (Time for Payment)

The crucial moment, in history had arrived
The Son of God left Heaven, put godly rights aside
Renounced His reputation, served His own creation
Surrendered unto death, even death on a cross

Pre-Chorus (The Price of Victory)

A heated battle in Gethsemane
A demonic taste of death tormented Him
Later, tortured by the whip, Gods own blood freely dripped
On the cross salvation bought, the war on sin fiercely fought
The price was paid

Chorus (The Conqueror)

Almighty God so loved the world
He conquered death, rose from the grave, our sins forgave
In the eyes of the world a mystery
But not in the council of divinity
God spoke the word, He said He'd pay
Because of love

Ending (He Paid)

God decided, before the world began...
